Can any reader furnish Dr. Bidlack data on the Sparks family which moved from Rockingham Co., N. C., to Franklin Co., Ga., c1787? In 1780 Thomas Sparks and wife Margaret obtained a land grant of 452 acres in that part of Guilford Co. N. C., which became Rockingham Co. in 1785. In 1785 Thomas and Margaret Sparks deeded 402 acres of this land to Jeremiah Sparks, who, with his wife, Mary, deeded 200 acres to William Bethell in 1787. In 1788 Jeremiah and Mary Sparks, then residents of Franklin Co., Ga., deeded to William Bethell the remaining 202 acres. Records of Franklin Co., Ga., reveal that the following Sparkses were residents of Franklin Co. on the Eastonollee Creek about 1800: Thomas, Sr., and wife Milly; Jeremiah and wife Mary; James (d. c1808) and wife Ann; Thomas and wife Elizabeth; and Elijah. How were these Sparkses related? Was Jeremiah the same Jeremiah Sparks who died in Morgan Co., Ga., in 1840 leaving property to son Carter Walton Sparks; daughters Malinda Arnold (wife of James B. Arnold) and Milley Crane; children of deceased daughter, Nancy Crane; and grandsons Joshua Patrick and Ezekiel Partee? Thomas and Milly Sparks were in St. Clair Co., Ala., in 1824 when they wrote to their grandson, William Crain Sparks. (In this letter Thomas and Milly Sparks referred to Russell Crawford, Isaiah Hancock and Jeremiah Hancock.) Martin Peeples Sparks (1786-1837) who married Elizabeth Whatley (1795-1870) and lived in Morgan Co., Ga., was probably a member of this family. Has anyone a record of a connection between a Peeples family and a Sparks family? Address: Dr. Russell E. Bidlack, 1131 Granger Ave., Ann Arbor, Michigan.

WILLIAMSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1800-1850

Mrs. L. E. Gardiner and Mrs. L. D. Bejach, both of Memphis, Tennessee, have compiled and published more than 5,000 marriage bonds and licenses for Williamson Co., Tenn., dating from 1800 through 1850. They seem to be complete from 1804 on. The marriages are arranged alphabetically by grooms' names, and there is a complete index to the brides. Compilations such as this one are a welcome addition to any genealogical library. Order from: Gardiner--Bejach, 43 Belleair Drive, Memphis 4, Tennessee.

NEW DATA FROM MINUTES OF PERQUIMANS MONTHLY MEETING (QUAKER), 1729-1736

Contributed by Dorothy Gilbert Thorne

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mrs. Howard Thorne (formerly Dorothy Lloyd Gilbert) is a well known and much beloved member of the faculty of Guilford College, where she has taught for many years. She is author of "Guilford, A Quaker College," published a few years ago. Guilford College is the depository for the records of North Carolina Yearly Meeting of Friends (Quakers), and Mrs. Thorne is on the Committee for the Preservation of Records. (The Quaker records of North Carolina were published in 1936 by the late William Wade Hinshaw.)

The oldest of the North Carolina monthly meetings is Perquimans. The first volume of the minutes begins with Second Month, 1680, and ends with Seventh Month, 1736, but the chronological order is out of joint from time to time, and prior to 1715 there are many small gaps in the monthly record. However, every year but one (1686) has left some traces either in this minute book or in the record book, which contains some of the marriage certificates. The confused state of this first minute book is the source of many of the disappointments of those seeking genealogical information on early North Carolina Quaker families.

The book has a strange history--it of all the three hundred manuscript books in the collection of North Carolina Yearly Meeting at Guilford College is the only one recovered and reassembled at various times and from various places. In 1915 Josiah Nicholson of Belvidere acquired the part of it now abstracted in Hinshaw, pp. 3-90, and gave it to Miss Julia White, then Custodian of Records for North Carolina Yearly Meeting. The section printed pp. 90a-90h in Hinshaw was found in an old building in Belvidere in 1936 and was sent to Miss Laura D. Worth, Custodian, by Elbert White. The third section was discovered in 1941 by Mr. W. W. Hinshaw himself in a secondhand book shop near Glen Falls, New York, and was purchased by North Carolina Friends and repaired by Miss Worth. (This third section was published in 1948 by Mr. Hinshaw as a supplement to his Volume I of the "Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy," and mailed to all purchasers of that volume.) The fourth part, now being printed here for the first time, was located in the manuscript collection at Duke University in the fall of 1949. Miss Mildred Marlette and I had completed an index of the Perquimans book that summer and immediately realized that the nine manuscript leaves catalogued at Duke as minutes of Chuckatuck Meeting in Virginia, were the missing pages from the Perquimans Minutes. They exactly filled the gap beginning with 6th month, 1729, and ending in the middle of a sentence in minutes for 5th month, 1736.

Dr. Benjamin Powell, of Duke University, generously secured permission necessary for the Committee of Records to purchase the nine leaves, and so the first minute book of Perquimans Monthly Meeting was reunited at last.

These minutes for the eighty-three consecutive months, 1729-1736, show something of the business of the meeting. It was chiefly concerned with the marriages of its young people. Forty couples appeared in the seven years. At their first appearance they "laid their intentions of taking each other in marriage before ye meeting," and a committee consisting of two men Friends was appointed "to enquire into his clearness in relation to marriage with any others." (The woman's meeting conducted a similar inquiry into the young woman's clearness.) The next time, usually the next month, the two "appeared and desired an answer to their proposals of taking each other in marriage ye inspectors bringing in a good report the meeting leaves them to their liberty to appoint a Day to accomplish their said marriage according to order."

The inspecting committee seems not to have reported on Joshua Elliott who laid his intentions before the meeting in 1734; and it delayed the marriage of Abraham Elliott in 1735, but no one was dropped from the meeting for marriage contrary to discipline. Mary Newby Trotter "condemned for outgoing" and was "excepted" before her marriage to Phinehas Nixon in 1730, but the "outgoing" did not refer to her first marriage (to William Trotter in 1725) for it had been under the care of the meeting.

Only four of those married in this period lived outside the limits of the meeting: Samuel Bundy, John Newby, and John Overman from Pasquotank Meeting, and Thomas Binford from Virginia.

This abstract omits "intentions to marry" to avoid repetitions, and whenever the actual date of the marriage is contained in Hinshaw or the supplement to Hinshaw, it omits not only intentions but also the "leave to marry" (ltm). Of the forty couples, marriage dates of only twelve had been recorded, so that this abstract contains new details for 28 marriages.

Once every three months the queries were "called over" and the answers given. On 9th m., 5th, 1729, "things were in indifferent good order & Friends in Peace." On 7th m., 2nd, 1730, it was reported that "Some were remiss in not coming to week day meeting;" on 1st m., 7th, 1732-3, "Things is as well as it usually is or rather better." These are the chief variations from the usual answers on the state of the meeting. Each time, two men were appointed to report the condition of the meeting to the quarterly meeting; the names and their frequency are important as they indicate who the leaders of the meeting were.

William More was appointed five times including appointments to Yearly Meeting in 1729 and 1731; Robert Wilson was appointed seven times including appointment to Yearly Meeting in 1731; the name Peter Jones occurs seven times also but three at least refer to Peter Jones, Jr.; Thomas Winslow and Zachariah Nixon were each appointed four times; Francis Newby, Gabriel Newby, Nathan Newby, and Thomas Peirce were appointed three times; Thomas Jessup, Joseph Newby and Wm. Hill were appointed to Quarterly Meeting once; and Thomas Hollowell and Thomas White were appointed representatives to Yearly Meeting in 1735.

Next in frequency come references to conduct. As will be seen by the abstract, lack of unity between members and the use of strong drink demanded attention from time to time. It is interesting to note that the monthly meeting, by bringing its opinion to bear on the offender, was usually able to bring him to repentance and to keep him as a member.

The meeting recorded two decisions, both in 1735. On the 4th of 11th month, this minute was written: "It is fuly agreed on and it is the minde of this meeting that no man shall be allowed to publish his intention of marriage before his wife has been dead a year & the woman's husband has been as long nor that they shall not offer Suit in relation to marriage within nine or ten months after the Decease his or her former husband or wife." On the 4th of 12th month, 1735, a minute reads: "It is agreed on by this meeting the Monthly Meeting be kept every month at the Meetinghouse on the Northeast side of the River, the upper meeting house."

Earlier in the same year, (9th month, 5th, 1735), a committee had been appointed "to agree with workmen to build a meeting house and to stir up people who has not contributed towards the same to advance something." The meeting had no other financial responsibilities and this is the only time money is mentioned in the minutes from 6 mo., 1729, to 5th month, 1736.

In the same period, Perquimans Monthly Meeting had only two visitors who came with certificates--Emma Evans of Philadelphia, and Eliphall(?) Harper of New England. The meeting "appointed that they have certificates granted to each of them"--and that is the chapter on visitation among Friends.

Perquimans Monthly Meeting in this period--and others--maintained its connections with the quarterly meeting and the Yearly Meeting; but its minutes indicate that it was a compact meeting concerned almost entirely with regulating the lives of its members. During the seven years it did not receive any new members, either by transfer from other meetings or by convincement. It illustrates rather well the state of the Society of Friends during the quietistic period of the 18th Century, when the first great missionary zeal of the 17th Century was spent, and the social conscience, to be awakened in the 19th Century, still slept.

COL. JOHN WILLIAMS

Colonel John Williams, of the American Revolution, died in Madison Co., Ohio, at the age of 109 years, 9 months and 17 days, according to a sketch of a grandson, Joseph Thomas of Eppard Point, Livingston Co., Illinois, and given in the Livingston County History. He was six feet, two inches in height, and weighed two hundred twenty-five pounds, was a leader among men, was found at the front in every engagement. He was the father of a large family, the ages of whom averaged 103 years at their death. Two of his daughters, Mary and Catherine, married Griffith and Moses Thomas, in Grayson Co., Va., brothers of Reverend Joseph Thomas, called The White Pilgrim, of Haw River, N. C., all sons of Griffith and Charlotte (Huffman) Thomas, former residents of Pennsylvania and Shenandoah Co., Virginia. Williams is said to have been of Welsh descent and of the Quaker faith. He and his two daughters and families came to Madison Co., Ohio, about 1825, where their descendants now reside, my husband being one of them. Nothing of the wife or others of the Williams family, his early residence or anything of any military activity has been preserved. He owned land in Madison Co. but no will or estate has been found. Did he also command N. C. troops? There seems to have been one Col. Williams in N. C., but his name was given as Otho, formerly of Maryland. Any bit of help or guidance will be welcome. What Monthly Meeting would be located in Grayson Co., Va., near Chestnut Creek, where the Thomas and perhaps the Williams families lived about 1804? One of our prized possessions is writings and poems of Rev. Thomas. He writes in detail of hardships encountered in travels through N. C. and Virginia, in the early days. Mrs. R. A. Stukey, Route 1, Montgomery, Mich.

1771 AND 1772 TAX LISTS OF SURRY COUNTY, N. C.

Surry County was formed 1771 from Rowan County. These 1771 and 1772 tax lists covered the present-day counties of Alleghany, Ashe, Forsyth, Stokes, Surry, Wilkes and Yadkin (and perhaps very small fractions of Alexander, Avery, Caldwell and Watauga). It is interesting to note some of the variations in spellings when comparing the names on the 1771 list with those on the 1772 list. For example, Angel and Engel, Inyard and Enyard, Carr and Karr, Cremer and Kramer, and so on. (There were two copies of these tax lists and major discrepancies have been noted. The originals are in the Archives in Raleigh, File No. L. P. 11.1. It was often impossible to distinguish between a's and o's, and between e's and i's.)
